To those publish teaching materials at “Nagoya University Open Course Ware”

Director, Nagoya University Library

Request of the registration of teaching materials to Nagoya University
Academic Repository

Nagoya University Library is grateful for your kind support and understanding of its different activities.

Nagoya University Library is in charge of the project “NAGOYA Repository”, by which it collects, saves and makes open to the public electronic versions of scholarly output of Nagoya University.

Aiming at permanent preservation and broad dissemination of Nagoya University Open Course Ware courses materials in NAGOYA Repository with cooperation of Open Course Ware committee along with disclosure at Nagoya University Open Course Ware, we provide their registration and making openly available, as well.

Therefore, we will proceed with registration at NAGOYA Repository lecture notes files (except video files) which you made openly available on the Nagoya University Open Course Ware (website), unless otherwise instructed.

After registration you will be sent notification mail with monthly usage statistics.

In case; you do not give consent, please contact OCW office in charge at address below.
