GET WITH A PARTNER

- What is critical thinking?
- How do we come up with (i.e. generate) better ideas?

WORKING AT BETTER IDEAS

- 1. Recognize your assumptions/ author bias
- 2. Separate facts, from opinions and inferences
- 3. Question the validity of the evidence
- 4. Don't make conclusions quickly (without consideration)
- 5. Understand multiple perspectives

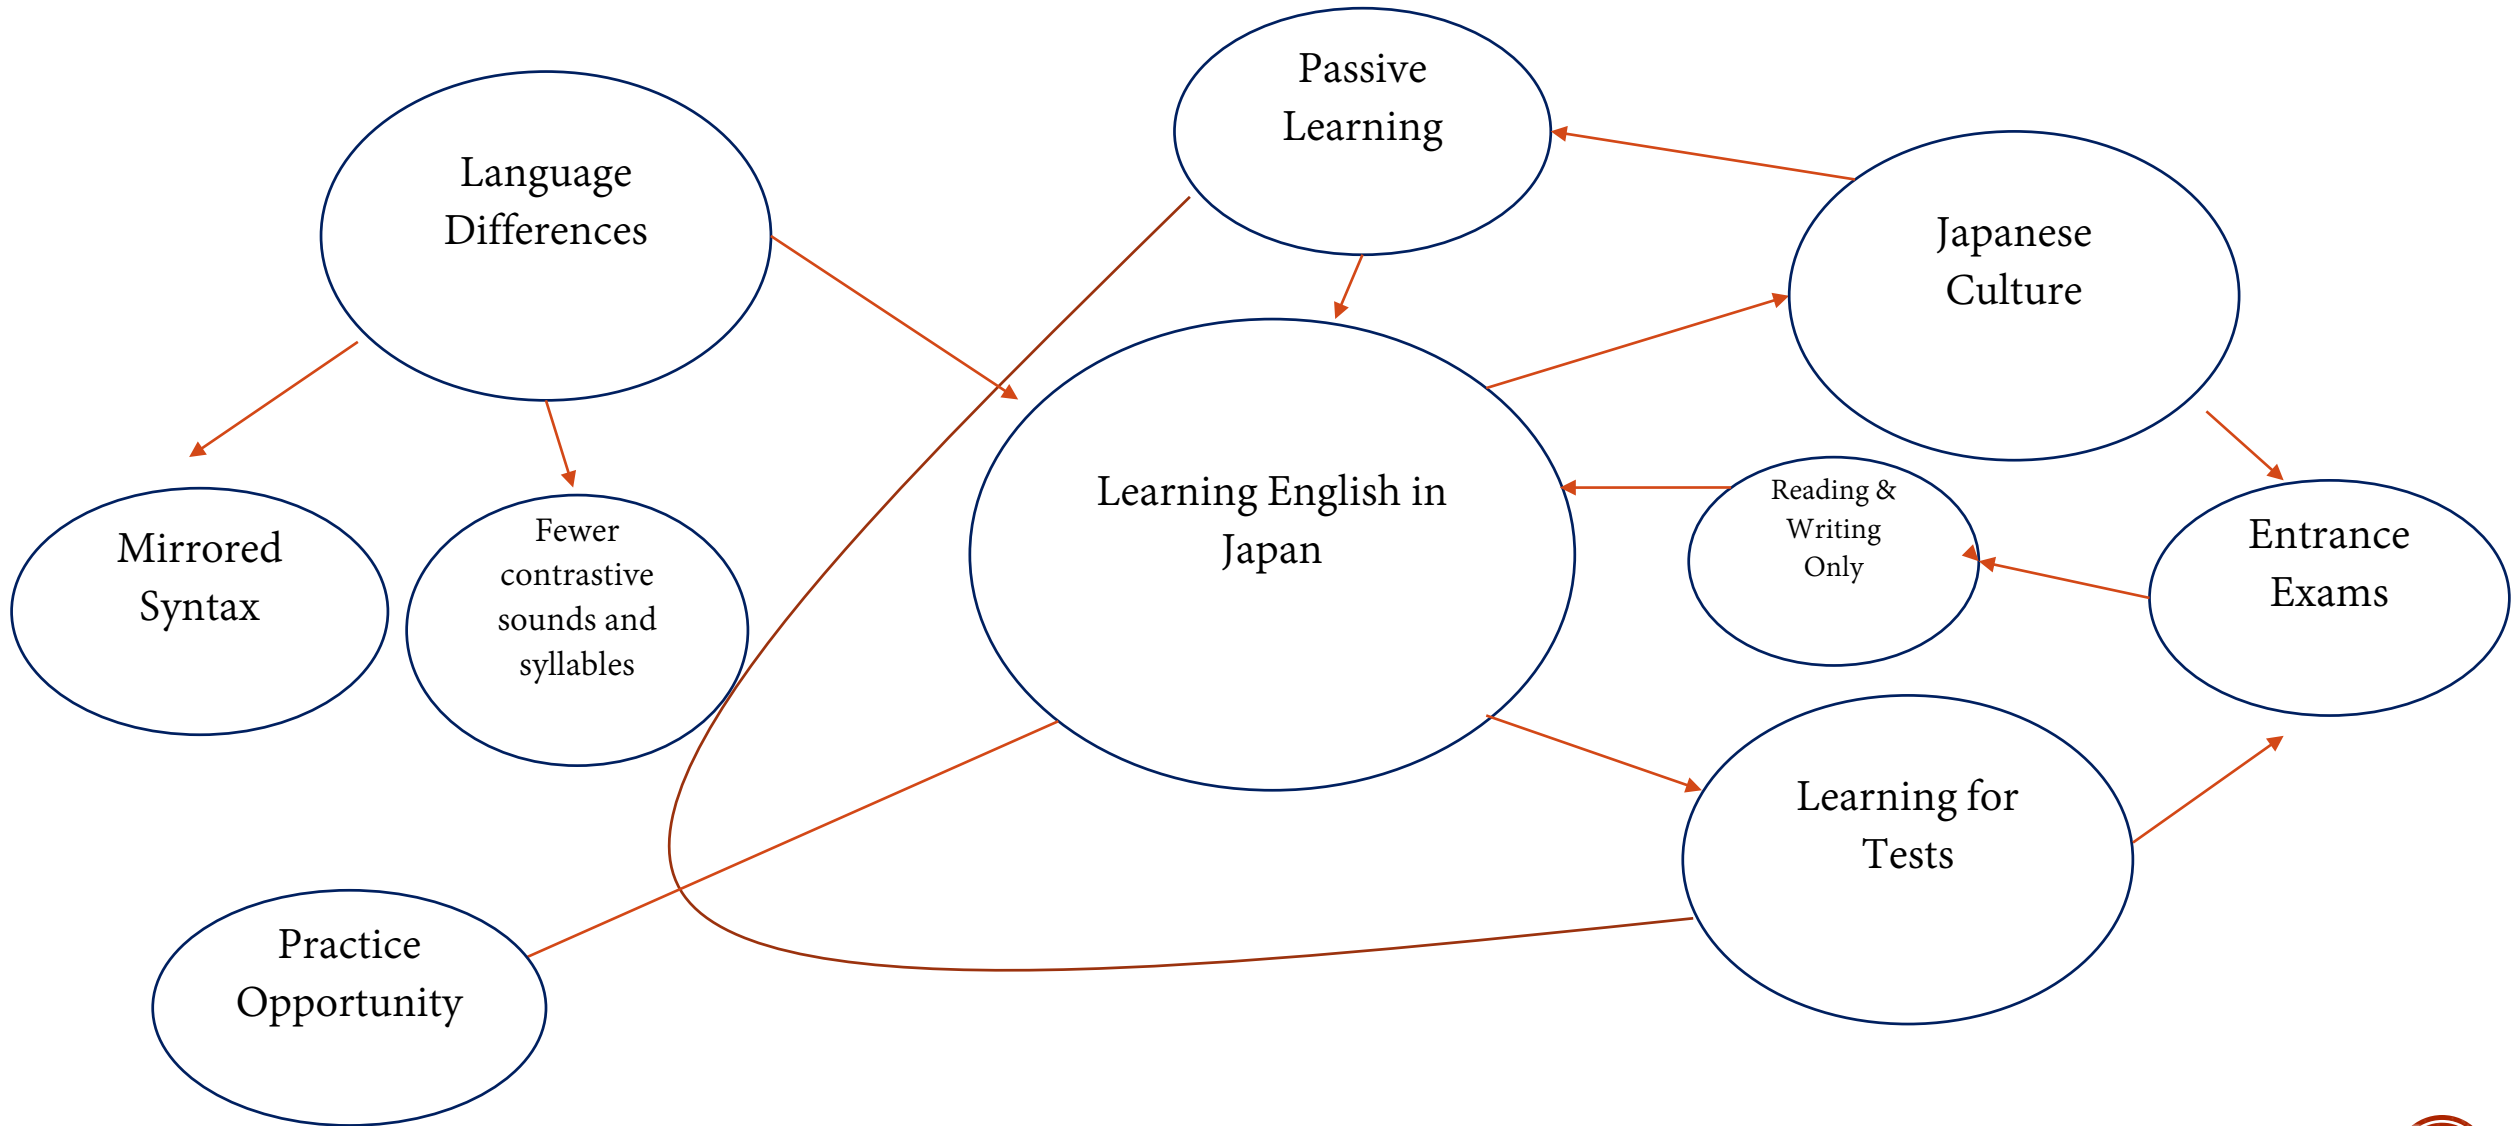

GROUP PROBLEM (10) MIN DISCUSS WITH 3 OR 4 CLASSMATES

- Discuss with 3 or 4 classmates
 - English Language Education in Japan.
- Do you think Japanese students overall feel confident about their English ability?
 - What is their actual ability and what ability is needed?
 - How is English taught in Japan?
 - What could be changed (assuming anything needs to be changed?)

THOUGHT MAP → CAN AID IN GENERATING IDEAS

INTRODUCTION

- Move to your thesis: your purpose

Good morning class...(my name)

- How is everyone today ...
- I'm here to talk about

➤ FYI: *Don't waste too much time introducing yourself

→ Get you your Thesis Statement

THESIS EXAMPLE

I propose that there is a direct cause and effect relationship between proximity and use.

WAIT WHAT IS THIS ABOUT ???

- You have to set up the statement.
 - P.11 of your book
 - You can also use a rhetorical question
- Did you know that people who live within walking distance of a fast food restaurant are less likely to be obese?

I propose that there is a direct cause and effect relationship between proximity and use.

WORK ON MAKING YOUR INTRODUCTION

Look at p. 10-12 in our book.

Think of a topic.

Write an introduction.

You may be called to model your answer.
