Reading response assignment (1-2 pages, double-spaced; 20% of total grade):

In a reading response, you will briefly describe the topic of the assigned reading, discuss what you newly learned from the study, and raise questions about the reading for class discussion. You must submit your response paper before the class that the reading is going to be presented. Main objectives of this assignment are to encourage your careful engagement with diverse academic articles, to prepare you for class discussion and to facilitate the development of your writing skills. Please note, it is your responsibility to keep a copy of your essay assignment until your final course grade is released.
